

28 days to your best skin yet

YES, THIS INVOLVES SOME COMMITMENT, BUT THE BEST THINGS ALWAYS DO

What is it? Lancôme Visionnaire Crescendo Progressive Night Peel, £60, from Wednesday

Step 1 Apply the mild liquid peel, which contains 5% natural fruit acids, for 14 days.

Step 2 Apply the stronger blend of 10% salicylic and glycolic acids for another two weeks.

The result Skin is brighter and more even with a reduction in trouble spots such as pigmentation.

Incredible oils

THE SLICK PICK

FOR FACE Chanel's newest jasmine face oil is based on an original formula created by Mademoiselle Coco herself in the 1920s. It's designed for facial massage and gives skin a smooth, satin finish. Chanel Limited Edition Huile De Jasmin, £97 for 50ml, from April 15

FOR LIPS Clarins lip oils glide on to leave your pout super-soft and beautifully tinted in one of four new shades. Our favourite is Candy, a fun pop of pink. Clarins Instant Light Lip Comfort Oil, £19, from April.

FOR BODY Make Elizabeth Arden bronzing oil your go-to for golden, sheeny limbs. Plus, the coconut scent smells like holidays. Elizabeth Arden Limited Edition Dare to Bare Body Bronzing Oil, £25, from April

Matte mouths PENCIL POWER

The beauty editor-approved Nars Velvet Matte Lip Pencil (£20) now comes in 10 more must-have shades. Style loves the hot pink Let's Go Crazy and Dirty Mind, a mauve purple.

Foot fixers

BECAUSE SANDALS REMAIN THE SHOE DU JOUR

THE FOOT CREAM L'Occitane Shea Butter Foot Cream (£19) has a nourishing formula, with lavender oil and anti-inflammatory arnica to reduce redness and de-puff swollen feet.

THE GADGET Try the Magnitone London WellHeeled Express Pedicure System (£25). It comes with a dermabrasion roller to sort out rough skin.

THE FREE TIP "Add some fresh mint to a bowl of warm water and soak your feet in it. It's nourishing, hydrating and reviving," says the foot expert Margaret Dabbs.

Waterproof wonders

GENIUS ON HOLIDAY, BUT ALSO AMAZING FOR OILY SKIN AND REGULAR GYM-GOERS

These new waterproof formulas and textures are more durable and won't slip, slide and smudge.
