WHAT'S NEW IN BEAUTY?

From prebiotics to pineapple water, transformative hair products to muted make-up, here's all you need to know and shop this season. First up: Gucci's hotly anticipated gender-neutral scent, Mémoire D'Une Odeur, £92, Selfridges. Fronted by Harry Styles, the fragrance genuinely doesn't tip too far towards traditional male or female scents, nor does it go down the obvious, traditional citrus or aquatic unisex route. Instead, airy, refreshing notes of camomile have been toughened up with creamy Indian jasmine and a musky, modern mineral note for a warming finish. Sexy and shareable.
